Starvation. Poverty. Rejection. Limited Education. War. AIDS. For many of God's children, the problems they face today fill them with a sense of hopelessness that inhibits any dream of tomorrow. The vision of Children of the Nations (COTN) is that every child will have the opportunity to dream about their future. By partnering with individuals and organizations to provide schools, children's homes, medical clinics, feeding programs, agricultural development, trauma counseling, vocational training, and more, this movement is raising children who will transform their nations.
